How This Report Works

This report uses two proprietary screening engines. Section 1 (Momentum) runs each player's valuation trajectory through our multi-signal acceleration model, which isolates genuine development velocity from market noise across rolling observation windows. Each player receives a composite momentum score (0-100) calibrated against all qualified U23 attackers in the target markets.

Section 2 (Rebound) applies our xV Dislocation Engine: a proprietary model that detects players whose current market price has diverged below their intrinsic value -- identifying mispriced assets available at a discount due to temporary circumstances (injury, adaptation, limited minutes). The FC Copenhagen-adjusted projection layers an age-weighted development curve as an additional overlay. Transition Risk (0-100) quantifies failure probability at a higher-tier club using a classifier trained on 791 historical player transitions.

Model Accuracy

Across the 15 target markets, the model achieved 80.0% to 96.3% accuracy for U23 attackers (7 leagues with sufficient test data). The model was trained exclusively on pre-2024 data, predictions were locked in Q1 2024, and outcomes were verified against actual March 2026 valuations. Full accuracy breakdown and hindsight verification on the final page.

Leagues Analyzed in This Report

This report covers attackers from 15 feeder leagues outside FC Copenhagen's own league: Serbian SuperLiga, Eredivisie, Liga Portugal, Swiss Super League, Belgian Pro League, Greek Super League, Turkish Super Lig, Ukrainian Premier League, Scottish Premiership, Allsvenskan, Ekstraklasa, Eliteserien, Croatian HNL, Liga I, Austrian Bundesliga.

MOMENTUM THESIS

Already recognised at international level (12 caps for Greece), Kaloskamis is valued at € 1.5M with room to grow. Our xV model forecasts € 4.2M at FC Copenhagen (+181%), factoring in the development premium FC Copenhagen provides. 5 goals and 3 assists from 36 apps -- early production is encouraging. Established international (12 caps for Greece) -- proven at a higher competitive level. Greek football combines Mediterranean tactical sophistication with accessible pricing — a practical scouting market. Long-term contract through June 2030 gives the selling club maximum leverage. Expect a premium.

MOMENTUM THESIS

Already recognised at international level (6 caps for Switzerland), Giger is valued at € 1.0M with room to grow. Our xV model forecasts € 2.3M at FC Copenhagen (+131%), factoring in the development premium FC Copenhagen provides. 23 appearances with 3G 1A so far. At 186cm, offers a physical aerial presence -- suits a target-man or hold-up role. Breaking into the Switzerland senior squad (6 caps) -- signals national-team recognition. The Belgian league has become a top feeder market — clubs here regularly sell to Premier League and Bundesliga sides. Tied down until June 2029 — the selling club has no urgency to negotiate, so any deal will require a full market-rate offer.

Thom van Bergen is a 22 year old Dutch Centre-Forward at FC Groningen in the Eredivisie who is right footed. He is 180cm and his contract ends in June 2028.

SCOUTING INSIGHTS

- Top-quartile in both goals (0.23/90) and assists (0.12/90), a dual-threat profile that is rare at this age
- Zero injuries across 82 career appearances, exceptional durability that reduces integration risk
- 17 international caps for Netherlands, proven at international level which reduces adaptation risk

MOMENTUM THESIS

Already recognised at international level (17 caps for Netherlands), Bergen is valued at € 2.0M with room to grow. Our xV model forecasts € 3.8M at FC Copenhagen (+88%), factoring in the development premium FC Copenhagen provides. 82 career apps, 15 goals, 8 assists (0.35 G+A/90) -- a deep body of work that reduces projection risk. Established international (17 caps for Netherlands) -- proven at a higher competitive level. Injury risk is elevated (70/100). Medical due diligence is essential before committing. The Eredivisie has a track record of developing attacking talent that adapts well to higher leagues. Contract runs to June 2028, giving the selling club reasonable leverage.

MOMENTUM THESIS

Already recognised at international level (7 caps for Portugal), Brazao is valued at € 1.2M with room to grow. Our xV model forecasts € 2.1M at FC Copenhagen (+79%), factoring in the development premium FC Copenhagen provides. Substantial experience: 45 apps with 2G 2A (0.20 G+A/90). Breaking into the Portugal senior squad (7 caps) -- signals national-team recognition. The Turkish league is intense and physical — foreign players who succeed here tend to adapt well to other competitive environments. Signed through June 2028. The club can afford to wait for the right offer.

Section 2: Rebound - xV Dislocation Picks

Players whose current market price has diverged below their xV intrinsic value -- mispriced assets available at a discount due to temporary circumstances (injury, adaptation, limited minutes).

- 1 Yvandro Borges Sanches Heracles Almelo | Heracles Almelo | Eredivisie | Age 22 | Luxembourg | 180cm | Right foot
Model predicts +40% organic growth over 2 years (+82% with FC Copenhagen development premium). 31 senior apps with 3G 3A. Currently € 500K -- potential rebound signing. Transition risk low.
- 2 Emmanuel Yeboah Halmstads BK | Halmstads BK | Allsvenskan | Age 23 | Ghana | 188cm | Right foot
Market value declined 27% over 12 months, but our model identifies a +6% organic dislocation from intrinsic value (+38% with FC Copenhagen development premium). 21 senior apps with 3G 0A. Currently € 400K -- potential rebound signing. Transition risk moderate.
- 3 Pedro Santos Famalicao | Famalicao | Liga Portugal | Age 23 | Portugal | 178cm | Left foot
Market value declined 60% over 12 months, but our model identifies a +4% organic dislocation from intrinsic value (+35% with FC Copenhagen development premium). 43 senior apps with 2G 3A. Currently € 600K -- potential rebound signing. Transition risk low.
- 4 Naci Unuvar Twente FC | Twente FC | Eredivisie | Age 22 | Turkiye | 168cm | Right foot
Market value declined 25% over 12 months, but our model identifies a +0% organic dislocation from intrinsic value (+29% with FC Copenhagen development premium). 72 senior apps with 8G 8A. Currently € 1.5M -- potential rebound signing. Transition risk low.
- 5 Matchoi Djalo Wisla Plock | Wisla Plock | Ekstraklasa | Age 23 | Portugal | 180cm | Right foot
Market value declined 45% over 12 months, but our model identifies a +11% organic dislocation from intrinsic value (+16% with FC Copenhagen development premium). 69 senior apps with 3G 1A. Currently € 600K -- potential rebound signing. Transition risk low.
- 6 Igor Gorbach Zorya Lugansk | Zorya Lugansk | Ukrainian Premier League | Age 22 | Ukraine | 184cm | Right foot
Market value declined 20% over 12 months, but our model identifies a +13% organic dislocation from intrinsic value (+12% with FC Copenhagen development premium). 66 senior apps with 4G 3A. Currently € 400K -- potential rebound signing. Transition risk low.

SECTION 2: REBOUND

#1 Yvandro Borges Sanches Heracles Almelo

Yvandro Borges Sanches is a 22 year old Luxembourgish Left Winger at Heracles Almelo in the Eredivisie who is right footed. He is 180cm and his contract ends in June 2028.

SCOUTING INSIGHTS

- One goal contribution every 147 minutes, a productive output profile backed by 886 competitive minutes

REBOUND THESIS

Currently € 500K with a flat recent trajectory. The xV model still sees +40% growth -- the market may be underreacting to Sanches's underlying progression. 3 goals and 3 assists from 31 apps -- early production is encouraging. Established international (29 caps for Luxembourg) -- proven at a higher competitive level. Dutch football's emphasis on technical development and positional play makes the Eredivisie a reliable feeder market. Still under contract until June 2028 -- not yet in the window where the club feels pressure to sell.

REBOUND THESIS

Market value declined 27% over 12 months to € 400K, but our xV model identifies a +6% price correction. At age 23, Yeboah has time on his side. 21 appearances with 3G 0A so far. At 188cm, offers a physical aerial presence -- suits a target-man or hold-up role. Breaking into the Ghana senior squad (3 caps) -- signals national-team recognition. Contract expiring June 2026 -- a realistic buying window if the club wants to avoid losing him for free.

REBOUND THESIS

Santos's value has dropped sharply -- down 60% in 12 months to € 600K. The xV model flags this as a dislocation: intrinsic value sits well above market price, projecting +4% upside. A potential buy-low opportunity. Substantial experience: 43 apps with 2G 3A (0.35 G+A/90). Established international (13 caps for Portugal) -- proven at a higher competitive level. Portuguese league clubs routinely produce and export talent, and valuations tend to lag performance. Contract runs to June 2028, giving the selling club reasonable leverage.

REBOUND THESIS

A proven player at € 1.5M after a 25% dip over the past year. Unuvar has 72 career apps and the underlying quality hasn't changed -- our xV model sees +0% recovery. 72 career apps, 8 goals, 8 assists (0.62 G+A/90) -- a deep body of work that reduces projection risk. Compact frame (168cm) typical of agile, low-centre-of-gravity dribblers. Eredivisie clubs consistently produce players who transition well to bigger leagues -- a lower-risk market for recruitment. Contract runs to June 2026, entering the zone where clubs typically prefer to sell rather than let the deal expire.

SECTION 2: REBOUND

#5 Matchoi Djalo Wisla Plock

Matchoi Djalo is a 23 year old Portuguese Attacking Midfield at Wisla Plock in the Ekstraklasa who is right footed. He is 180cm and his contract ends in June 2026.

SCOUTING INSIGHTS

- Goal-hungry from wide areas with a 3:1 goal-to-assist ratio, cuts inside to score rather than just providing
- Has experience across 4 clubs, adaptable to new environments and coaching systems

Djalo's value has dropped sharply -- down 45% in 12 months to € 600K. The xV model flags this as a dislocation: intrinsic value sits well above market price, projecting +-11% upside. A potential buy-low opportunity. 69 career apps, 3 goals, 1 assists (0.13 G+A/90) -- a deep body of work that reduces projection risk. Breaking into the Portugal senior squad (4 caps) -- signals national-team recognition. Polish football combines competitive intensity with low transfer fees — an increasingly watched market by top-tier scouts. With his deal ending June 2026, the selling club faces a choice: sell now or risk losing him on a free.

How We Tested

The model was trained using only data available before January 2024. It then made predictions for every player during Q1 2024. We waited two full years and compared those predictions to actual market valuations published in March 2026. The model had zero access to any information from the prediction period -- a fully out-of-sample, double-blind test. Accuracy figures above reflect whether the value moved in the predicted direction, not magnitude precision.

Limitations

This is a quantitative screening tool, not a complete scouting assessment. It identifies candidates based on valuation momentum and statistical patterns, but does not evaluate tactical profile, playing style, physical development, psychological readiness, or character. Video review, in-person scouting, and detailed performance analysis (xG, xA, progressive actions, pressing metrics) are essential before any signing decision. Players flagged here should be treated as a starting point for deeper evaluation.

Illustrative Examples

Two cases from the backtest illustrating how the model performed on U23 attackers in feeder markets. These are selected correct predictions -- the model also misses, particularly on players affected by injury, loan moves, or league changes not captured in the training data.

How to Work With Us

All work is delivered as finished analysis. Tell us what you need, we send the results. No software, no dashboards, no onboarding.

There are three ways to brief us.

1. Position Shortlist

€ 10,000

Tell us a position, we surface the targets, calibrated to your club. This report is one example. If you have specific constraints in mind, include them in the brief. If not, we apply our defaults.

2. Player Deep Dive

€ 7,500 per player • 3-pack € 18,000

Name a specific target, we go deep. Full xV modelling, player failure risk analysis, transition risk calibrated to your environment, injury and discipline history, contract leverage, comparable transfer benchmarks, and a buy, hold, or pass recommendation with confidence scoring.

Used when you've already identified a name and need conviction before opening talks.

3. Custom Builds

From € 30,000

For clubs that want an AI framework across the club. Automated shortlist pipelines, internal scouting data integration, opposition analysis systems, or AI agents trained on your data. Scoped to your priorities and pains.

To start, send a one or two line brief by email or WhatsApp. Reports are delivered in 3 to 5 business days.
